

35 MacDonald Ave,
 Dartmouth, NS, B3B 1C6
 Tel: 902 468 6696
 Toll Free NS: 1 800 971 3888
 Web: www.constructionsafetyns.ca

SAFE WORK PRACTICE

Name of Job: Use and Handling of Propane Tanks	Development Date:	Developed By:	Approved By:	Review Date:
--	-------------------	---------------	--------------	--------------

Possible Hazards Present

Compressed gas	Fire/Explosion	Heavy Lifting
----------------	----------------	---------------	--

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and Devices Recommended

Steel toed boots	Hand protection	Eye Protection	Fire retardant clothes
------------------	-----------------	----------------	------------------------

- DO use Nylon slings in a “choker” fashion when loading, off-loading or lifting propane tanks.
- DO NOT use “Lifting lugs” provided on tanks. Slings are to be wrapped around the shell of the tank.
- DO use Regulators are to be removed from the tank prior to any movement of the tank.
- DO ensure tank caps are in place when not hooked up.
- DO use Crane hooks shall be equipped with a “safety latch”.
- DO equip All trucks, cranes or equipment used to handle propane tanks with a fire extinguisher appropriate for the size and type of tank being handled.
- DO NOT except in an emergency, any movement or repositioning of tanks shall be performed by a competent worker.
- DO NOT Tanks are not to be heated to increase flow.
- DO when in use, propane bottles are to securely held in an upright position.
- DO NOT Tanks are not to be hooked up and used without proper regulators.

Please note: This document is for information purposes only as a guide. The safe job procedures (SJP) and safe work practices (SWP) created for your workplace should reflect your organizations processes, equipment and hazards as identified by a hazard analysis. Construction Safety Nova Scotia does not assume responsibility for the use of information in this document. If assistance is needed to complete a SWP and SJP for your organization please contact CSNS member services at constructionsafetyns.ca or 1.800.971.3888.