

35 MacDonald Ave,
 Dartmouth, NS, B3B 1C6
 Tel: 902 468 6696
 Toll Free NS: 1 800 971 3888
 Web: www.constructionsafetyns.ca

SAFE WORK PRACTICE

Name of Job: Use of a snow blower	Development Date:	Developed By:	Approved By:	Review Date:
---	-------------------	---------------	--------------	--------------

Possible Hazards Present

Slip, trips and falls	Vehicle or property damage	Serious injury	Excessive noise
Frost bite

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and Devices Recommended

Hand protection	Warm winter clothing	Hearing protection	Eye protection
Steel toed boots

What are some good general safe work practices?

- DO use two people to lift
- DO stretch muscles prior to task to avoid injury
- DO take frequent breaks to avoid injury from cold, vibration and repetitive motion
- DO be aware of the discharge direction and distance to avoid injury or property damage
- DO ensure that Clothing should be worn in layers and vented to avoid overheating
- DO ensure that bare skin does not touch metal surfaces
- DO ensure caution on slippery/icy surfaces
- DO stop the engine and disconnect the spark plug before performing maintenance or refueling
- DO follow safe job procedures regarding refueling
- DO block/Chock the snow blower
- DO ensure that the snow blower is operated in well ventilated areas

Please note: This document is for information purposes only as a guide. The safe job procedures (SJP) and safe work practices (SWP) created for your workplace should reflect your organizations processes, equipment and hazards as identified by a hazard analysis. Construction Safety Nova Scotia does not assume responsibility for the use of information in this document. If assistance is needed to complete a SWP and SJP for your organization please contact CSNS member services at constructionsafetyns.ca or 1.800.971.3888.

- DO keep all guards in place
- DO proceed in a forward gear and only use reverse when necessary
- DO Keep others away from the flying debris area

Please note: This document is for information purposes only as a guide. The safe job procedures (SJP) and safe work practices (SWP) created for your workplace should reflect your organizations processes, equipment and hazards as identified by a hazard analysis. Construction Safety Nova Scotia does not assume responsibility for the use of information in this document. If assistance is needed to complete a SWP and SJP for your organization please contact CSNS member services at constructionsafetyns.ca or 1.800.971.3888.