

Certificate of Recognition (COR) Application

Certificate of Recognition (COR) is a health & safety certification program for organizations in construction and related industries. COR is proof of a company's safety program meeting nationally established standards outlined by the Canadian Federation of Construction Safety Associations.

It also meets the Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) safety certified criteria

Your company size will determine your path to achieving COR.

Step 1: Determine your company classification
Owner Operator 1 person	Small Business 2-4 persons	Intermediate 5-19 persons	Standard 20 + persons
Step 2: Training requirements
Construction Entry Level Training Owner/Operator + any compliance-based training required	Construction Entry Level Training Principles of Loss Control Hazard Identification & Control COR Evaluation + any compliance-based training required	Construction Entry Level Training Principles of Loss Control Hazard Identification & Control COR Evaluation Leadership for Safety Excellence + any compliance-based training required	Construction Entry Level Training Principles of Loss Control Hazard Identification & Control COR Evaluation Leadership for Safety Excellence + any compliance-based training required
Step 3: Evaluation Fees (Taxes included)
Member $ 113 Associate Member Plus $250 Associate Member $331	Member $118 Associate Member Plus $276 Associate Member $363	1st &amp; 4th Year Member $339 Associate Member Plus $276 Associate Member $995 2nd &amp; 3rd Year Member $138 Associate Member Plus $276 Associate Member $363	1st &amp; 4th Year Member $592 Associate Member Plus $983 Associate Member $1375 2nd &amp; 3rd Year Member $144 Associate Member Plus $288 Associate Member $385
Step 4: Submission
Owner Operator Instrument Comprehensive Hazard Assessment	Safety Manual (First year) COR Evaluation Instrument	Safety Manual COR Evaluation Instrument  (Followed by an External Audit)	Safety Manual COR Evaluation Instrument  (Followed by an External Audit)
COR training online courses are $46.00 each taxes included.            Construction Entry Level Training online course is free. A Member is any company that has a current Workers' Compensation Board account under the construction industry classification codes 4011-4499 and 3551. An Associate Member is any company whose WCB SIC code does not fall within 4011-4499 or 3351, as well as companies not currently receiving WCB coverage. Members receive free COR online courses and discounted compliance training.            First time members will receive their first-time submission for free.

Certificate of Recognition (COR) Application

Company Name

Address

City

Province

Postal Code

Phone Number

Fax

General Email

Owner

Owner's Email

WCB Business Number

Standard Industrial Classification (SIC Code)

Number of Employees

Does your company have a Safety Manual? Yes      No

Do you hire Sub-contractors? Yes      No

Do you have 3 months of documentation? Yes      No

Reasons for obtaining COR

Description of work

Company COR Evaluator

This individual will take the COR training and take responsibility of the company's COR requirements.

Name

D.O.B

Email